LACE UP YOUR SNEAKERS, RAISE SOME FUNDS

GATHER TOGETHER family and friends to support the annual Teddy Bear 5K RUN/WALK. Funds raised will go towards helping children at the 32° Masonic Learning Center for Children with Dyslexia learn to read. Dyslexia cannot be cured, but it can be overcome. Children born with a neurological difference called dyslexia struggle with the frustration and anger because they cannot read. The 32° Masonic Learning Center provides a proven teaching method customized to children with dyslexia. Every child receives free specialized one-on-one instruction. There is no other program remotely like it. More than 1,200 children have learned to read and have reached their full potential. The event will take place along a safe scenic course starting at the Cincinnati Masonic Center, 317 East Fifth Street, Cincinnati on Sunday, September 27, 2009. Help to enable and overcome the effects of dyslexia.

AC Boys and girls are equally likely to suffer from dyslexia. It can be prevented but not cured.
